"English is a funny language. That explains why an alarm goes off by going on!" - Anon

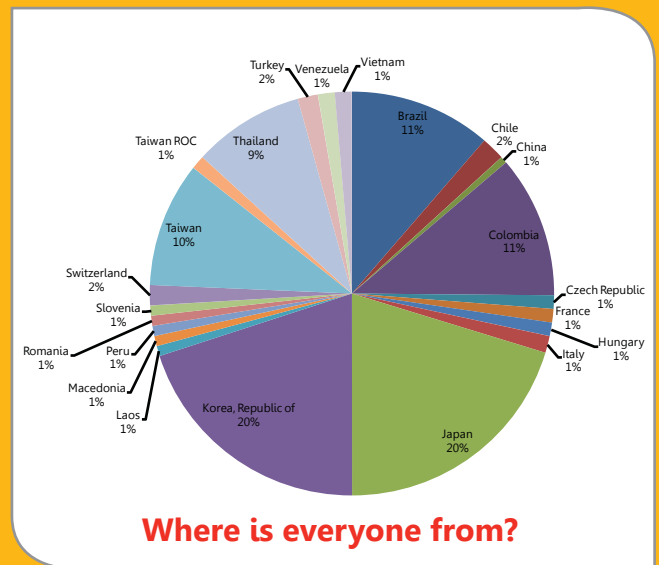

Greetings from...

Hi everybody!
Let me introduce myself, my name is Lorenzo and I am the new Administrative Officer at Impact. First of all, I have to admit that I am not Australian, I am Italian! I came to Australia a couple of years ago to travel, learn English and enjoy myself! When I first arrived in this country I couldn't say a word in English. After a year of travelling, I decided to study more and improve my English so I found Impact English College. I came to Impact as a student, I have studied the Cambridge First Certificate in English and now I am working here. I am the one that is able to answer all your questions! So if you want to test me please come to reception on Level 5 and ask me anything about Melbourne, about your next trip in Victoria or in Australia...I'll see you around beautiful people! Have fun!
